

Job Description

Job Title: Production Operative (Moygashel)

Reporting To: Shift Manager / Production Supervisor

Job Purpose: Production Operatives work on a fast-moving packaging line, which has various stages.

Main Responsibilities:

Depending on your exact role, below is a list of the main responsibilities expected of the successful candidate.

- Checking and controlling the machinery that packages the food ensuring consistent quality.
- Ensuring the packaging line achieves its targets.
- Responsible for maintaining the cleanliness of workstation always.
- Recording product parameters.
- Report equipment or product faults to supervisor or management.
- Report any non-conformances identified immediately to management.
- Comply with all company rules, policies, and procedures.
- Follow Health and Safety policies.
- Work as part of a team.

We are seeking candidates who meet the following criteria:

- Good understanding of English.
- Be able to work on own initiative.
- Flexible to work overtime when required.
- Good communication skills.
- Able to work in controlled environments.
- Previous factory experience would be advantageous.

Applicants should note that this is not an exhaustive list, and they should be prepared to undertake any duties deemed necessary by their supervisor or the management team of Mackle Pet Foods for the production department to meet its targets.